Unit 2 Meet My Friend

Track 06

Interviewer Loretta, let me start by asking you about your family name. Pironi is quite an unusual name – is it Italian?
Loretta Yes, it is. I'm British, and I was born in London, but my grandfather is Italian – Pironi is an Italian name.
Interviewer So, did you grow up in London?
Loretta Yes, I did. I grew up in North London, but I visited my grandfather's home in Italy every summer.
Interviewer And where did you learn to cook?
Loretta In my grandfather's kitchen! He showed me how to cook the most marvellous food... And then, when I was 18, I went to study cooking in Paris.
Interviewer Paris! So how many languages can you speak?
Loretta Oh, just three – English, Italian and a little French.
Interviewer Let's talk about your café. When did you open it?
Loretta The café? Six years ago. It was my partner's idea.
Interviewer Your partner? Is he from London too?
Loretta No, he isn't. He's French. We met when I was in Paris.
Interviewer And then he moved to London with you?
Loretta Yes. We run the business together. It's hard work, but a lot of fun.
Interviewer So, does your partner like London?
Loretta No, he doesn't. He hates the weather.
Interviewer And what does he think about English food?
Loretta He thinks it's awful!
