

Level 1 Unit 2 The Fisherman and the Little Fish

A. Listening

- Listen and fill in the blanks to finish the sentences.

<Word box>

Rich hook net dinner return fable fat sat

- One day, a fisherman sat down by a river and he began to fish.
- On his hook was a small fish.
- Rich people will give you lots of money for me!
- If I return you to the river, you will get big and fat.
- Now, you are in my net.
- This means I have my dinner.

B. Vocabulary

- Circle the word that makes more sense in the sentence.

- We swam in the river / hook.
- I fat / feel sick because I ate too much food.
- I sold many cups of lemonade and made a big delicious / profit.
- You are a liar! That story isn't true / feels!
- After you use my pencil, please profit / return it to me.
- Kick the ball into the dinner / net.

- Circle the answers.

1. Which one is a kind of story?
a. dinner b. fable c. profit
2. Which one means to taste very good?
a. fat b. delicious c. true
3. Which one means very big and wide?
a. fat b. sat c. rich
4. Which one means to turn over in the air?
a. feel b. flip c. fat
5. Which one means real?
a. rich b. return c. true
6. What is a large stream of water?
a. river b. fisherman c. hook

C. Speaking

- Listen and read, then act out the story with a partner.

<Play script>

*  = do not say

Fish: "Please sir, release me,"  he said to the fisherman.

"You can see I'm a small fish. If you put me back into the river, I will grow big and fat! Then, you can catch me again and I will be the most delicious fish! Rich people will give you lots of money for me!"

Fisherman: "No,"  said the fisherman.

"If I return you to the river, you will get big and fat. But what if I do not catch you again? I won't make any money at all! Now, you are in my net. This means I have my dinner!"