bread trick wife followed dropped push children night

A poor woodcutter had two children, Hansel and Gretel. One night, the woodcutter's wife told him to leave Hansel and Gretel in the woods to die. Then, she and the woodcutter would have more to eat.

Hansel heard his parents talking. The next day, Hansel dropped stones along the road as they were led into the woods. That night, the children followed the stones home.

Once again, the woodcutter left his children in the woods. This time, Hansel dropped bread on the road. But sadly, some birds ate the bread.
