

My Hero

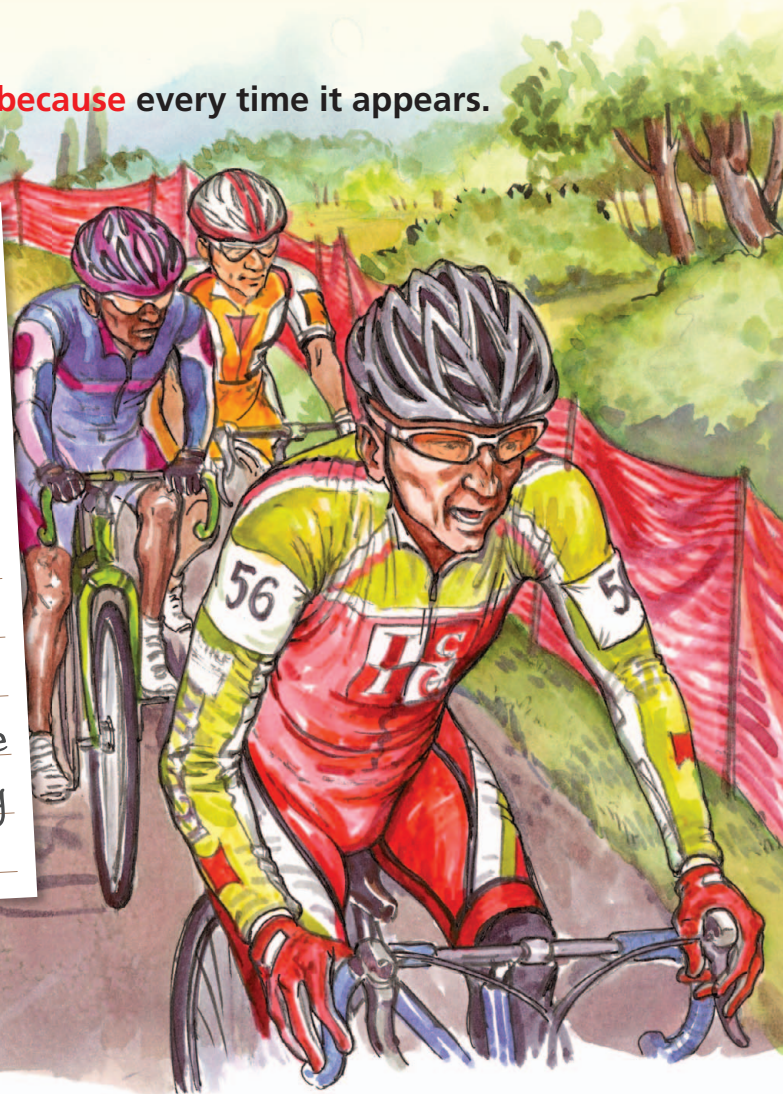

Objectives

- To use because to give reasons
- To write about your hero

A

Read the paragraph. Circle the word because every time it appears.

My hero is Joe Sapere. He is my hero because he cycled across America. It was great because he only has one leg. He lost his right leg in an accident. I think he is strong and brave because he did not give up. He organized a big cycle ride for other people who also lost a leg. They cycled across America to raise money for charity. He shows me that we can all help others. I want to be a strong person like Joe Sapere.
