C. Put the following events in the correct order.*A Fishing Trip

Today I went fishing with my grandfather. I was nervous. At first I thought I might fall into the lake. The lake was very deep. Also, I had to put a worm on the fish hook. I did not like that. It was disgusting! However, my grandfather helped me.

I liked sitting in the boat with my grandfather out on the wide lake. It was very calm. The sun was shining on the water. After two hours, I felt something tug on the fishing line. I caught a fish!

I didn't know what to do. My grandfather was napping and I didn't want to wake him up. Also, while I was trying to get the fish into the boat, I dropped my fishing rod. It fell into the water with a big splash, and my grandfather woke up. I was so ashamed that my face turned red. I thought I was going to cry, but my grandfather smiled at me. He said that it is OK to make mistakes while fishing. He told me that once, my brother caught an old shoe with his fishing rod. I guess that I'm not the only one in my family who has trouble with fishing!

- a. The boy's fishing rod falls into the water.
- b. The boy does not want to wake up his grandfather.
- c. The boy feels happy to be out on the lake.
- d. The boy has to put a worm on the fish hook.
