

More School Subject Readings 2 Final TestUnits 9-16*A. Fill in the blanks with the correct words.

tilts	criminals	supplies	ghosts	jewels
attraction	panic	unsteady	vomit	terrified

1. Our legs were unsteady when we first started walking on the beach.
2. Today, many people believe that ghosts live in the Tower.
3. The queen's guards watch over her crown jewels there.
4. Only the worst criminals went to Alcatraz.
5. He gave King Kronos a special drink that made him vomit.
6. People say the jewels are the biggest attraction at the Tower.
7. Acrophobia can cause feelings for panic and sickness.
8. She got stuck and too terrified to climb down.
9. This elevator tilts slightly during the ride, so hold on tight!
10. In the mid-1800s, simple elevators carried supplies.

B. Match the related words.

- | | |
|------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. normal | a. hurt someone on purpose |
| 2. torture | b. uncooked; in a natural state |
| 3. raw | c. typical; usual |
| 4. cell | d. run away; flee |
| 5. escape | e. small locked rooms in a jail |

C. Write the correct information in the boxes below.Greek Gods

Mount Olympus was no ordinary mountain. The gods of ancient Greece once made their home there, except for one young god named Zeus.

Zeus did not live on Mount Olympus. His mother sent him away. She knew that King Kronos, her husband, would kill Zeus if he ever returned. Kronos did not want any of his children to become king. For this reason, he ate them as soon as they were born. But Zeus's mother tricked Kronos. She gave him a small stone instead of Zeus. King Kronos ate the stone, believing it was Zeus. He then thought his throne was safe. With his mother's help, Zeus was able to escape from Mount Olympus.

Zeus grew up to be a strong god. He soon yearned to live on Mount Olympus. His mother missed him, so she brought him back. He pretended to be a slave. He gave King Kronos a special drink that made him vomit. Out came all of Zeus's brothers and sisters! Together, they all fought King Kronos. Zeus became the new ruler of Mount Olympus, and he sent King Kronos away.

Zeus chose Hera, who was also his sister, as his wife and queen. He then gave his other brothers and sisters their own areas. They ruled over these areas so that Zeus would not have to do everything.

King Kronos	Zeus
a. His wife tricked him into eating a stone.	d. He pretended to be a slave.
b. He vomited up his children.	e. His brothers and sisters helped him to rule.
	d. He married Hera.

- a. His wife tricked him into eating a stone.
- b. He married Hera.
- c. He vomited up his children.
- d. He pretended to be a slave.
- e. His brothers and sisters helped him to rule.