My Country's Traditional Food

I'd like to tell you about a traditional food from my country. They're called Yorkshire puddings, and they're 1. very good!

Yorkshire puddings are a food from England. They are very fluffy and are made from batter, like pancakes, but they're cooked in an oven instead of a frying pan. You need milk, flour, eggs, and a 2. dash of salt to make them. Since they're called a "pudding," they might sound like 3. something sweet, but they aren't. They are usually served with roasted meat and vegetables. They're traditionally eaten with roast beef, but you can eat them with anything you like! We usually have lots of 4. extras, and I love eating them cold for breakfast with strawberry jam on top! I could eat Yorkshire puddings for every meal!

Yorkshire puddings are also called "Yorkshires" or "Yorkies." They're 5. beloved all over England. Next time you feel hungry, why don't you try making them?
